this is the first book in the series that I have read to my 6- year-old. He just loved it and I must confess, so did I. The book isn't too long and the story has a fast pace which holds the child's attention. I like the illustrations too. All in all highly recommended. I've just ordered 5 more

This is a terrific Magic Tree House book about the . It had a lot of scary parts, such as the army ants and the vampire bats. This also had some really interesting and exemplary information on the . I definitely think that any Magic Tree House fan shouldn't miss this one. Happy reading!!!

I like this book because it is an adventure book. I believe it is a good book for kids that like adventure. The book is about two kids named Jack and Annie. They go on a trip to the rain forest. When they get to the tree house they find a mouse. The mouse helps them through the rain forest. So they find a canoe on the river side and get in it. When they get down the river a monkey starts throwing red fruits at them. After it stops doing that piranhas started to eat the boat. Then after that Jack grabs a snake. So after that they back on the river side. When they get on the side, a army of ants come after them. When they get away from the army of ants they can not find the tree house , so they put the mouse on the ground and it finds the tree house. But the jaguar finds them and starts running after them. Now you need to read the book to see if they find what they are looking for.

All of the books in this series have been great so far. My son just started second grade and has been reading these books as part of his nightly reading assignment. I love how each book builds off the last. It gives my son something to look forward to each week as he reads these.

My 2nd/3rd graders thoroughly enjoyed reading this in conjunction with our study of rain forests. Of course, my students and I have not found a Magic Tree House book we don't like! We liked the way they could learn many facts about the rain forest while reading an enjoyable story. We also learned more about character traits.

The Magic Treehouse books are truly magic, my 8 year old son loves them and I can't keep up with ordering them. I have purchased 4 at a time and he reads them in days. They are great books and great for his imagination!

I love reading these to my daughter. she has quite the imagination and these books really keep her interested. we share the reading...I have her read some and then I read some --keeping her engaged and improving her reading skills. If you have a child with a vivid imagination....this series is for them!
