Pathfinder Campaign Setting: Inner Sea Magic

Synopsis

Magic has suffused the Inner Sea region for thousands of years. This Pathfinder sourcebook takes a detailed look at the magical traditions of the Inner Sea, including rules for magic variants (from hideous fleshwarping rituals to the wild and unpredictable surges of primal magic), examinations of how magic is taught (be it in schools, temples, guilds, or secret societies), and how the spellcasters of the region have chosen to specialize in various forms of magic. Additionally, this book presents two, new oracle mysteries, 18 new archetypes for spellcasting classes, a pair of prestige classes (the cypher mage and the divine scion), and a wide selection of unique, unusual, and exciting new spells for all who would seek to master the art of magic.

Customer Reviews

I got this book for my campaign using the core books seeing it brought some flexibility to the magic users. It seems to be balanced and works well in my situation. The magic tattoos, extra base class spells, new oracle cures, and magic schools is what got me to buy the book.

I really enjoyed this book, and would recommend it for anyone who wants to run a niche spellcaster in Golarion. There is a lot of information on different spellcasting traditions, and many ways for players and GMs add flavor to their games. The character options and spells are mostly well-balanced and all very flavorful. I would recommend this book.

Good book filled with more magic and lore. It includes a list of the top schools throughout Golarion with a little write for each. As well as all the practitioners throughout the land.

Very few "crunchy bits" (useful rules, feats, etc.). The "Mage guilds" were more like bardic colleges, they all required perform of some sort, while the academies were more magic oriented. Tattoo magic sounded interesting, but didn't have many concrete examples. The book is very thin, maybe 40 pages at most. I wound up giving it to my DM hoping he'd make a real mage's guild.

Does not focus as much on additional spells and mechanics as I hoped; the book focuses more on setting and lore. Still, pretty happy with the content and a very interesting read.

This book has a wonderful layout. It includes images of the inner seas most famous wizards. The spells and options they have for players are amazing.

Level 1 Human Tattooed Cross-blooded Orc/Dragon Sorcerer casts burning hands for 5d4+10..... If you want to specialize: this is your book.

i usually play fighters so i didn't think this was going to be very useful for me. the archtypes made me rethink my next build.
