This was a pretty decent short story, centered in the minecraft universe. If you are looking for an entertaining short read, then I would recommend this book, especially if you are into minecraft. The only not so good thing about the book is that it seemed the story could have taken place in any setting, not specifically minecraft. There were lots of good details, an interesting story, and a mystery plot. Overall, pretty decent read.

I love reading these books with my son. This one is about a creeper who can't seem to do anything right. He blows up things, he makes a mess. He gets lessons on how to control himself. They don't work. Just when you think it's all over for him he suddenly is the only creeper that can save the day. Great book full of twists and turns!

Some friends kids are completely into Minecraft. I had no idea what it is. I figured it must be violent-gore, based on the title, but then also knew that my friends wouldn't let their kids play something inappropriate. Anyway- I picked this book up, for two reasons. I thought it might make a nice reading-gift for their kids. And, I was curious about this whole minecraft thing. What a really well written, story. It is cute, clever and intelligent. It made perfect sense to me- even as a complete newbie- and it was also interesting to me without any background. It reads well, it is funny and clever, and even has a few educational snippets embedded into it. If your kids like minecraft, I imagine he or she will love these books.

This is a wonderful Minecraft story. The character of trigger the creeper and the situations he faces throughout. Those have been documented in his diary. It was amazing to see how he requires the explosion powers and later on blows up the great nest, actually half part of it. The instances of meeting the king, his trial and his arguments with rocket the creeper all have been written and presented beautifully. The end of the story is very impressive where we see the attack from the humans and their reactions when they see trigger the creeper so it is at the end when we know if he was a useless or a useful creeper.

This story is light-hearted and entertaining for those who love Minecraft. The useless creeper, who happens to be the main character, gets in trouble and is soon to face punishment when he has to help find a traitor among the creepers. He proves he's not as useless as thought. The story has a good pace and it's pretty funny.

This book is superbly written. I bought it specifically for my chikdren. They love games that have to do with Minecraft. The writer has taken time to explain how this game is useful. I guess this is a perfect read for all.

Fun book. I usually don't find books that are this good but if you are looking for a book that is good quality, you've come to the right book. I also wanted to spread a word about 2 reviewers named "Ashley" and "Dana". These reviewers write spam on random minecraft diaries (including Minecrafty Brothers) just to defend Minecrafty Family, when the book isn't even copied. I just want all of you guys to know to not listen to Ashley and Dana. This book had a pretty good storyline, along with lots of detailed paragraphs with good wording. I've never been this impressed with these books before. I also think the cliff hangers were great, as in when the book left off in "Diary of a useless creeper"

Part 1. A simple plot, to keep the story going. The plot was well-structured, making this book very interesting. This book is a page turner. This book is must-read. Nobody should look at this book as a piece of trash. A short, detailed story which I find very enjoyable. I highly recommend getting this book. No other diary writer except Jeff Kinney and Minecraftery Brothers could write like this. I anticipate Minecraftery Brothers books with pleasure. I am always pleased to read his books. These books keep me happy. :) Don't miss out on this delightful short story! Get your copy of this book today. Keep up the great job with your suspenseful books! 5 stars and can't give it anymore! ;D

This book is one of the Minecraft reads ever! This has many nice parts in it and it's a read that made me want more books by the Minecraftery Brothers! The only thing wrong was that it made no sense on one part. Spoiler Alert! Trigger was going to get Notch's gunpowder removed so why did Rocket keep on going for revenge when whom he was trying to get revenge on was already having a severe punishment? This was the only confusing part but also the plot was a bit too obvious as from the first half of the book you find that Rocket already hates Trigger so obviously Rocket hired the assassin and stuffed the creepers with sand. Otherwise the book was fine.
